

The Ambassador Series Bundle: 4-Pack

Our culture is immersed in postmodern, secular thinking. People believe that truth is relative—"You have your truth and I have mine"—and that God is a universal force. Add to this the growing trend of biblical illiteracy and you end up with very real obstacles in explaining the gospel message to a friend.

Previous methods of evangelism are not working well. Believers are grasping for ways to communicate the message of the Bible clearly. What can we do?

The Ambassador Series investigates these issues as they relate to the message and method taught and used by Jesus on the road to Emmaus.

Designed for:

Personal growth in the area of evangelism.

Appropriate for these audiences:

- Bible-believing adults
- Those who want to equip themselves to evangelize more effectively

Included:

1. And Beginning with Moses (114-page book)
This book takes a look at problems we face in communicating the gospel in today's culture. It also explores how to communicate a clear gospel. The second half of the book looks into tools that are effective in explaining the gospel. Also included are sections about common blunders made with these tools as well as ideas of how to use them effectively.
2. What's in a Name? (60-minute DVD)
This DVD explores the question: "How can we clearly communicate the identity and work of Jesus to a world that does not know him?"
3. Flying Truth in Formation (60-minute DVD)
This DVD explores the strength of a creation-to-Christ architecture and how Bible believers can confront both a skeptical world and a questioning church with confidence.
4. Unlocking the Biblical Worldview (DVD, four sessions, 40 minutes each)
This DVD explores the biblical worldview. It defines powerful keys inherent in Scripture that can help us unlock the Bible's message.
