

The Menorah

The menorah was one of the pieces of furniture in the Tabernacle. Though its shape is known, the Bible does not give the size of the menorah. However, a depiction of the menorah (and thus its size) can be seen on the Arch of Titus. This menorah was designed based on a careful study of that monument.

The menorah was the only light in the Tabernacle. It was to burn continuously. Christians believe it is a picture of Jesus, who said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." - John 8:12 (NIV)

It is understood that just as the menorah was the only light in the Tabernacle, so Jesus Christ is the only one who can tell us how to walk in this world and give us the true path to eternal life.

The menorah is 1:10 in scale and constructed of metal and electroplated in gold. Since the Bible gives no dimensions for the menorah, we compared it to the people portrayed on the arch and designed it proportionately.

The menorah is packed in a sturdy box and can be presented as a gift.
